

Australia office round-up

Resolution Institute | Dec 2018

Happy New Year!

January is typically one of the quieter months of the working calendar and whilst many of us in the Sydney office have taken time off to spend time with loved ones, we have also been ramping up for an exciting few months ahead.

Recruitment We are still recruiting for a Marketing Manager through Beaumont people, if you know anyone who you think would love the role please forward them this link for information and details on how to apply>>

Website You may be aware that we are revamping our website. Our project team have been working hard with our designers and developers to transform our online presence. Thank you to those who have contributed suggestions for improvement, in particular the members of the Arbitration Working Group and Adjudication Working Group who have provided many detailed suggestion for improvement.

Professional Development Network meetings have been scheduled for February and strategically review and recommend a calendar of professional development activities for each DR professional type. More about this type of group can be found in the Professional Development Networks Terms of Reference. Dixya has been working with the newly formed 2019 Professional Development Groups to kick off the 2019 calendar of local professional development and networking events. If you missed the deadline and still wish to join a Professional Development Group you can submit your interest at any time here >> and we will pass your details to the current group for consideration. Webinar programme planning for 2019 is underway with 3 webinars advertised for early 2019.

Sydney office lift replacement A reminder if you plan on popping into the Sydney office in the near future, the Sydney office lift replacement is underway and will run until mid-February 2019. If you have any questions about changes to arrangement for room hire, member meetings, training or events during this time please contact our office.

In case you missed it, in December...
