

“Conciliation in the shadow of the law”

Presenters: David Bryson & Michael Mitchell

University College, 40 College Crescent, Parkville, Melbourne

2019 Workshop date:

Monday 13 & Tuesday 14 May 2019

9:00am to 5.00pm

This 2 day workshop is a unique opportunity for Conciliators, court registrars and other ADR practitioners to sharpen their dispute resolution skills and explore the dynamics of how conciliation operates in a statutory context. The workshop focuses on conciliation (rather than mediation) strategies and explores them across a number of jurisdictions. Workshop participants will have an opportunity to:

- learn new approaches and styles to manage situations that challenge them
- acquire conciliation skills and knowledge that can be applied in many areas of professional practice
- workshop “real life” disputes with other conciliation practitioners

Participant numbers are limited to enhance the learning and provide for in-depth discussions. The “Conciliation in the shadow of the law” workshop is now in its fifth year and is unique training for conciliator practitioners.

Workshop fee (2 days): $1300.00 (exclusive of GST)

Please register/pay - 24 April 2019.

Note: Financial ‘Resolution Institute’ & ‘VADR’ members receive a 10% discount.

All days fully catered.

Testimonials from previous “Conciliation in the shadow of the law” workshops:

- “The course was pitched at the perfect level, with enough context & theory to understand the ‘whys’ of conciliation but then supported with the practical actual ‘hows’ of conciliation. The fact that the content evolved depending on participants needs was excellent. All round this course is terrific and I will be recommending it to anyone who practices conciliation, be that an artist or a novice in the craft” - Mersina Stratos (Conference Registrar - Administrative Appeals Tribunal)
- “It was wonderful to attend a workshop that addressed the theory & practice of what conciliators do in a blended process” - Pina Federico (Family Law Registrar)
- “The course masterfully met the unique and complex needs of a conciliator in regulated environment. So refreshing to hear from others in the field, so very diverse and interesting” - Nathaniel Muller (Legal Services Commission)
- “It was wonderful to be able to attend a course aimed solely at Conciliators. Finally, I felt as though all of the topics, issues and discussion were relevant to me. Very practical and I really enjoyed learning from conciliators across different jurisdictions.” - Alyssa Duffy (Conciliation Officer - Accident Compensation Conciliation Service)
- “An excellent course to prepare a ‘traditionally’ trained mediator to move into conciliation. It helped me consolidate my thoughts on the differences and allowed me to move into a more directive role. Thank you for this.” - Vince Thorne (Mediator, conciliator, rural financial counsellor)
- “I would highly recommend this workshop to people working in the ADR world. A lot of useful content over the two days. It was a wonderful way to gain insight into how conciliations run in other jurisdictions.” - Anita Mugo (Privacy Assurance Officer, Office of the Victorian Information Commissioner)
