

Australia office round-up

Resolution Institute | April 2019

Hello

Website

It was all-hands-on-deck in the Sydney office for the launch of our new look website. Thank you to all of our staff many of whom worked significant overtime and their weekends. We are proud of the significant improvement this project has delivered and are excited to begin work on the next big project on our list.

Recruitment

We are delighted to welcome Amanda Dollman to the team as our new Marketing Manager. Amanda has many years of experience in communications with Central Coast Council, Information and Privacy Commission, Crown Solicitor's Office, LexisNexis and Central Coast Business Lawyers. Amanda has a Bachelor of Laws and many years' experience working as a volunteer for a number of not for profits.

Australian Dispute Resolver Directory

Please update your profile to take advantage of this member's only opportunity to grow your business. Here's three reasons why:

1. New links to the directories are in the footer of every website page.
2. Every time your name is mentioned on the website, we've hyperlinked it to your profile.
3. We shortlist nominations candidates from your profile data.

Thank you for your patience as we fixed some bugs in the directory as we upgraded the website.
