

Restorative practice in dispute resolution – beyond settlement

Facilitated by Jon Everest

October 2020

8.30am	Arrival tea, coffee and fruit To allow for travel time variations! We'll be on site to welcome you.
9.00am	Mihi whakatau / welcome and introductions Using circle format A practical experience of a restorative circle
10.30am	Morning Tea
10.45am	'Lifting the lid' on the circle process Reflecting on process and purpose
11.15am	Introduction to restorative practice Language and principles Conventional justice vs restorative justice Applying the principles in a scenario
12.45pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Principles of restorative conversations
1.45pm	Applying a restorative conversation to a scenario Practice and reflection
2.15pm	Embedding restorative principles in a community or organisation Case studies, process, purpose, outcome
2.45pm	Afternoon Tea
3.00pm	The difference between restorative solutions and mediated solutions
3.15pm	Planning a circle process in your context Application, discussion and reflection
4.00pm	Closing circle
4.30pm	Close of Workshop Evaluation form

Resolution Institute reserve the right to make alterations to the program.