

Erhan Karabardak

Director

Cooper Mills Lawyers

Erhan Karabardak is a senior lawyer, and trademark attorney.

Erhan is recognised as a leading trademark and domain name professional and is regularly engaged to provide expert advice and commentary on trademark and domain name issues. He is a co-author of Lahore's Patents, Trade Marks & Related Rights.

He acts for a range of clients both Australian and internationally based, including well-known global brands. With almost 25 years' experience, he has been recognised by the World Trademark Review as a Recommended Individual.

He is also recognised as a leading expert in domain name law and regularly acts for parties to auDRP and UDRP, as well as domain name disputes before the Federal Court of Australia.

He was formerly Deputy Chair and Chair of .au Domain Administration (auDA) Australia's domain name regulator, and is currently an adviser to .PG the domain name extension for Papua New Guinea. He is also the Secretary of the Asia Pacific Top Level Domain Association (APTLD), which represents over 60 country level extensions (including Australia) making it the biggest regional body of its kind in the world.