

Craig Jones EMBA BSc Hons MAICD

Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer
RREDD | Risk Response Engage Design Develop

Craig is an accredited mediator in Australia and PNG, who has over 20 years experience working with Indigenous populations and communities to progress development.

Craig's mediation work is multi-disciplinary, involving governments, communities, courts and corporations.

Craig understands the complexities of negotiating outcomes in tense environments. Craig leads RREDD engagement with clients in the belief that development can be for the benefit of all parties and risk (external and internal) when identified and acknowledged can be managed.

Craig's work history includes tenure as member of the Queensland Native Title Tribunal, Associate Professor at James Cook University, General Manager- Land Access at Arrow Energy and Principal Advisor at SANTOS. This breadth of experience ensures he is able to meet the demands of a broad array of clients.
