

Shane Astbury

Commercial Manager
CPB Contractors

Shane has over 40 years' experience in the construction industry. He is qualified as a solicitor and a civil engineer. Shane has combined the unique capabilities of engineering and law a role as a commercial / contracts manager for large construction and contract mining companies in Australia. Shane has country experience in Australia, USA, Pakistan and India. Significant practical experience has been gained on a broad range of building and civil engineering projects. He has unique experience in advising on, drafting and negotiation of complex contracts in the building, mining, civil engineering, services and process industries. Industry experience encompasses both government and private client led projects. Shane has a broad and in-depth knowledge of contracts used in all deliveries model across the industries. Such delivery models include, (inter alia), D&C, PPP, Mining Services, Consultancy, Alliance, EPC, EPCM and Managing Contractor. Shane also has significant experience in advising on and managing claims and disputes processes such as arbitration, litigation, expert determination, adjudication, mediation and various other dispute avoidance and resolution techniques.

Qualifications and Post Nominals

B Eng(Civil): LLB; MBA; Grad Dip Arb & Med.
MIEAust; CPEng(Ret).
Solicitor
Graded Arbitrator.
Member of DRBF